

Lesson 1

ad /æd/

- a short for an advertisement, a public promotion

add /æd/

- to join one thing to another to increase its number or value
- to put together values or numbers to calculate their total

envelop /ən've·ləp/

- to cover or surround something completely

envelope /'en·və·ləʊp, 'ɑn·və·ləʊp/

- a flat paper container used for letters and documents

hair /her/

- thin threads that grow on top of your head and on your skin

hare /her/

- a large, long-eared mammal very similar to a rabbit

finally /'faɪ·nə·li/

- after a long time or after some difficulty

finely /'faɪn·li/

- in very small pieces
- delicately and precisely

wait /weɪt/

- to stay in place until something happens

weight /weɪt/

- a measure of how heavy something or someone is

weigh /weɪ/

- to measure how heavy something or someone is